

BITS OF NEWS

John Ross, clerk, 922 N. La Salle, fined $10 for flirting with police-women.

Ass'n of Commerce launched city beautiful plan. Want big firms to keep flower boxes on window sills.

Chief Healey ordered warrant served on Barney Grogan for selling liquor without license.

Six cavalry horses of Fort Sheridan troops found to be suffering from hoof and mouth disease. Killed.

Black hand threw bomb into home of Mrs. John Miller, 1016 Milton av. Little damage.

Peter Grugie, grover, 11417 Watt av., arrested after suspicious fire had partly destroyed grocery.

Police probing death of Augusta Schonder, domestic, 2856 Armitage av., found dead from gas in home of Mrs. L. A. Herbert, 902 Lakeside pl.

Relatives of Mrs. Ella Coppersmith, murdered with son by maniac, called to try to identify 3 suspects.

Mrs. Anna Williford, 26, found dead from gas in home of neighbor at 5488 East End av. Quarreled with husband.

Police probing death of Harry Londergan, 1508 W. Garfield blvd, who died today of mercury poisoning.

Isaac Goldberg suicided with gas in rooming house at 1250 Hastings st. Out of work.

Man tossed note from Bismarck hotel window. Signed girl's name and told of captivity. Publicity scheme say police.

NOTE PLEASES GERMANS

Washington, May 13.—Representatives of the German embassy here say that if Pres. Wilson's not to Germany is as press reports indicate that there will be no trouble about the two countries reaching a friendly understanding. They seem highly pleased with the tone in which the press indicates the note is written.

LOVES KIDDIES, BUT MUST PLAY WITH PYTHONS

Ormi Hawley

Charming Ormi Hawley, who likes to play movie roles in which she is the fond mother of an armful of kiddies has had a new part assigned her.

Instead of babies she will have to handle two big pythons in a new Lumin release. One of the reptiles is 24 feet long and the other is 18 ft.

BILLY SUNDAY!

Paterson, N. J., May 13. — One thousand blue jackets from the Atlantic fleet now at New York came here last night to hear Billy Sunday. Three hundred hit the trail.